Utah Museum of Fine Arts

The Utah Museum of Fine Arts (UMFA) at the University of Utah is your destination for global visual arts. From ancient objects to the latest contemporary works, the UMFA galleries—newly reimagined and remodeled—showcase the breadth and depth of human history and creativity. For more information, visit the website at <https://umfa.utah.edu>.

Utah State Capitol

For over a century, the State Capitol has been one of Utah's most prominent landmarks. Designed by local architect Richard K. A. Kletting, the Capitol has been home to state government since its opening in 1916. Today, the Capitol building contains two active legislative chambers, a ceremonial supreme court chamber, and the working offices of top state officials. The Capitol Hill Complex has grown to include Senate, House, and state office buildings. Inside the Capitol and around its grounds, a wide variety of original artwork, treasured artifacts, and historical monuments are on display. For more information, visit the website at <https://utahstatecapitol.utah.gov>.

Ski Resorts

For more detailed information on each site, download the ACI app.

Alta Ski Area

Alta has been referred to as a "skier's mountain" for many reasons. It is known for its scenery, diverse terrain, and for the uncanny quality of snow that it receives season after season. Alta does not allow other types of winter recreation other than skiing. For more information, visit the website at www.alta.com.

Brighton Resort

The mountain averages 500 inches of snow a winter. The snow is traditionally light, fluffy, and dry, making it a paradise for riders and skiers. Brighton is located directly in the path of winter storms and it is also at the very top of Big Cottonwood Canyon, so it gets the very best of the "greatest snow on earth," and lots of it. For more information, visit the website at www.brightonresort.com.

Deer Valley Resort

Voted the number one ski resort in North America in 2018 by the readers of SKI magazine, Deer Valley Resort offers luxurious amenities such as ski valets, groomed-to-perfection slopes, on-site childcare, and gourmet dining in three elegant day lodges. We also provide an award-winning ski school and three ski rental shops featuring high-quality Rossignol equipment. For more information, visit the website at www.deervalley.com.
