ANTI-TRUST STATEMENT

The Chairman of ACI 327 reminds all participants in this meeting that we need to be mindful of the constraints of antitrust laws. There shall be no discussion of agreements or concerted actions that may restrain competition. This prohibition includes the exchange of information concerning individual company's prices, rates, costs, market practices, or any other competitive aspect of an individual company's operation. Each participant is obliged to speak up immediately for the purpose of preventing any discussion falling outside these bounds.

Examples of subjects which should never be discussed at association meetings are pricing, surcharges, conditions, terms and prices of service, allocating or sharing of customers, and refusing to deal with a particular supplier or class of suppliers. Agreements among competitors relating to any of these subjects are per se violations of the antitrust laws, and can lead to severe criminal and civil penalties.

It is essential, therefore, that all necessary steps be taken to prevent any association meeting from becoming a forum for those types of discussions which might lead to an understanding or agreement, expressed or implied, with respect to any essential element of competition.
